Star of Galilee

Adrienne Foster Potter

Piano

1. I spread my light a - round the ba - by, and
2. I gave my shade to wear - y trav - 'lers, and

5

lit the path for all to see. I shone so bright for Him who made me, birds who sang their lul - la - bies. I shel - tered shep-herds on their jour - ney,

9

Who am I? The Star of Ga - li - lee. I soft-ly blew be - hind the don - key, to Who am I? A tree so old and wise. I felt the feet of Jo - seph walk - ing, I an - gel pray'rs I sighed a - men. I gent - ly blew the joy - ful mess - age, felt the ho - ly ba - by's birth. I swallowed up the tears that fell there.

13

 Have 4 helpers holding signs showing a star, a tree, the breeze, and the ground, or have children dress up as those items.*

©1996 by Adrienne Foster Potter

17

Who am I? The breeze of Beth - le - hem. f I was there! I saw the King!
Who am I? The ground that fills the earth.

21

Lis - ten as my song I sing. All who hear these words will know,

Gently

25

1.

I have seen His ho - ly glow!

28

2.

I ho - ly glow! mp Two thou - sand years have 31

come and gone but what we know lives on.

rit.