

A Nightingale

By Debbie Wood

A Nightingale

Musical notation for the first system, featuring a treble and bass clef. The tempo is marked as 84. Chords are indicated as C, Em, F, and G7. A 'Slower' marking is present over the final measure.

Musical notation for the second system, including lyrics: "One can be a night-in-gale for there's a song to sing." Chords are C, Em, F, and C.

Musical notation for the third system, including lyrics: "Let an-oth-er give the praise for we have love and peace to bring. Yes,". Chords are F, C, Dm, and G7. A 'Slower' marking is present over the final measure.

Musical notation for the fourth system, including lyrics: "be an-oth-er Night-in-gale, van-i-ty ig-nored. 'Let an-". Chords are C, Em, F, and C. The system ends with a 4/4 time signature.

Em Am F G7 C

oth - er man praise thee, and not thine own mouth", for pride one can't af - ford. I'll Im -

F Em Dm C

sing a song of grat - i - tude; for mine is true and deep. And Dive merse thy - self in grat - i - tude for bless - ings all a - round.

F C F 1. G

see this qui - et lul - la - by for lull my pride to sleep.
in - to serv - ing oth - ers, that's where love is

F Em Dm C

Think of oth - ers I can serve; my du - ty nev - er shirk and watch love grow as I for - get my - self and go to work.

F C G7 C

2. G F Em Dm

found. For thou, oh man, art ser - vant in the house - hold of our

C Em Am F G7

Lord. "Let an - oth - er man praise thee, and not thine own mouth", for pride one can't af - ford. The work of man how No - ble; how No - ble is thy rea - son. Thine in - flu - ence is felt here if on - ly for a sea - son. How in - fin - ite in fac - ul - ty, his form, he moves so ad - mir - ably. How like an an - gel, ac - tions re - fined. How like a god! Yes! Slower

C F Em Dm

C F C F

G F Em Dm

C F C F

G7 C Em F

Man is Di - vine! One can be a night - in - gale for there's a song to sing. Let an - oth - er give the praise for we have love and peace to bring. Yes, be an - oth - er Night - in - gale, van - i - ty ig - nored. "Let an - oth - er man praise thee, and not thine own mouth", for pride one can't af - ford. OH, HUM - BLE NIGHT - IN - GALE!

C F C Dm

G7 C Em F

C Em Am F G7

C C C

Slower