1. Je - sus will come in a glor - i - ous light. And fill the wide
2. All truth we'll know that we've want - ed to know. The most prec - ious 3. What we will ask will be gi - ven to us. And Sa - tan can - sky with his pow - er and might O - ver tak - ing the world as a thief in the things of the earth and a - bove Giv - ing us peace of mind, a new glo - ri - ous not hurt or tempt an - y man. There will be no more death, hence no sor - row for night. All eyes will be - hold him in this won - der - ous sight. birth His know - ledge and spi - rit will touch e - ve - ry soul. He'll man. We'll be in God's pre - sence and we'll sing a new song.

wipe a - way all of our tears. He'll take a way all of our fears. He'll fill our hearts — with joy and love. He'll bring with him hea - ven's light from a - bove.
