

Through His Eyes

He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart;
that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart,
and be converted, and I should heal them.

John 12:40

Words and Music by Annette Ward

Moderatly Slow with Feeling

mf
A

10

blind man from bir - th did Jes - us pass by. And his di - eyes were a - noi - ted with spit - tle made clay. My Sav - ior sci - ples ask - ed him why, "Mas - ter who sin - ned his par - ents or heald him on the Sab - bath day. Peo - ple judg - ed His migh - ty him?" With love in his eyes Jes - us re - plied, "This is the works. He did what they thought He - should 27

15

21

1.

work of him who sent me. I am the light of the world." mf The mans

34

2.

not. The blind man stood and pro - claimed faith ful ly, "I know I was 40

blind now I see!" I hope to have the light of my Sav - ior. I hope to look and see as he sees. For it tes - ti-fies of hope, faith and truth.

47

53

His eyes are pure. They are char - it ty.

Slow with Reverence

rit

mp

59

mp

In the gar - den He suff - ered so. He felt my joy and pain so low. He wept from His eyes, beau - ti - ful eyes, As He paid the price for my dept.

67

ritard legato

a tempo

ritard legato

a tempo

74

Then from the cross, His perfect eyes looked. He saw all of us and fulfilled the law. While nailed to the tree with eyes so hum-ble, He for-

80

88

gave the men who caused the trou-ble. "It is fin - ished!" Were the last words He spoke. He closed His eyes and a - send-ed a - bove. He 101

95

p died! My Sav - ior with eyes so pure That I may use his eyes to see.

legato, reverently acc

p legato, reverently acc

108

Thoughtfully

mf
Our Sav - ior gave us eyes to see. He gave us the - gift of char - i - ty. I must see me through His eyes. On - ly then can I see my cap - a - bil - i - ty.

mf

115

122

ritardando ritardando