

Look Up to Me

In the miracle found in Mark 8:22-25, a blind man came to Jesus seeking his healing touch. Jesus took the man by the hand and led him away from the crowds to a place of relative privacy. The miracle would take time. Jesus put his hands upon the man and asked him what he saw. "I see men, walking as trees." The man could see partially, but not fully.

After that, Jesus put his hands again on the man's eyes and "made him look up." Imagine the man kneeling before Jesus with one of Jesus' hands on each side of the man's face. In that moment, the man could see Jesus and only Jesus. Once the man's eyes were focused on the Savior, his vision was miraculously restored and he could see clearly.

Look up and focus on the Son. Experience the miracle of sight.
