

138

How Precious the Hope

Christmas Hymns

Michael D. Young

Flemish Carol, arr. Michael D. Young

How pre - cious the hope that we all now en - joy be - How pre - cious the fruit that the seed of faith bears as How bril - liant the dawn of that glo - ri - ous morn when cause of the first Christ - mas night. How last - ing the peace that we we seek our Sav - ior to - day. As the bright new star led the next He re - turns to the earth. Re - turn - ing in splen - dor as all now can claim be - cause of His bright, heal - ing light. Oh, wise men a - long the Spir - it now shows us the way.

Sav - ior and King, and not as His once hum - ble birth.

let us sing out with the an - gels, who first brought the news of His birth. Whose

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music ends with a double bar line.

Text © 2015 Michael D. Young Arrangement © 2015 Michael D. Young

Moroni 7:42
Romans 15:13