

The March of the Three Kings a Christmas fantasy

Traditional Tune

words by M Ryan Taylor (based loosely on "La Marche de Rois Mages")

Moderate March

1. Dawn breaks forth, a - ris - ing in the east. A
2. "Three great kings have led us by that star, you 3. Street by street we pass each rich a - bode, and might - y host ___ of ___ he - ros march-es hith-er. Dawn breaks forth, they see it bright - ly ___ though the sun has ri - sen! Three great kings have each new door ___ holds ___ hope and ex - pec - ta - tion. Street by street, and come from out the east, their ar - mor glint-ing in the ris - ing sun. A led us by that star, come join our ranks and see the ho - ly child!" The look - ing to the star, we come at last to where the light shines down. The page boy leads with his trum - pet bold, he sounds a tone and my host moves on bear - ing chests of gold. I see the kings with a son of God lays up - on the hay. The son of God laid with - heart is filled with won - der. "What brings this fierce host to bo - dy guard of pa - li - dins. My heart cries out, "You must in a low - ly sta - ble. Three kings bow low, here in Beth - le - hem?" We seek the Sav - ior of the race of men!"

go with them, and find the Sa - vior of the race of men!"
Beth - le hem, be - fore the Sa - vior of the race of men!