1. En - cir - cled in our Sav - ior's love What then have we to fear?
2. When steps are slow, He lifts us up To climb a high - er hill,
3. He calms the winds of dis - be - lief When storms a - round us roll.
4. With faith in His re - deem - ing love, Then may we wor - thy be

Though foes of truth may try our faith, His help is al - ways near.
That we may drink the sweet - er cup Of God's un - fold - ing will.
His spir - it soft - ly whis - pers peace, Sweet peace un - to the soul.
To dwell with Him in realms a - bove Through all e - ter - ni - ty.

His great a - ton - ing sac - ri - fice We scarce can com - pre - hend,
Our cour - age in a trou - bled world To rise a - bove the strife,
En - cir - cled in our Sav - ior's love, We nev - er walk a - lone.
En - cir - cled in our Sav - ior's love, His glo - ry we'll be - hold.

For sure - ly He hath borne our griefs, Our Sav - ior, Lord, and Friend.
He lives. He loves. He leads the way To ev - er - last - ing life.
His word, a lamp un - to our feet, Will guide our way back home.
How won - der - ful that day will be With - in the Fath - er's fold.
