

Oh, Child Beloved

Earnestly ♩ = 78

1. Oh, chi - ld be - lov - ed, so dear un - to me, How earn - est - ly
2. I seek thee, be - seech - ing, oh come un - to me! Heed not the de -
3. Take my pow'r to lift thee wher - ev - er thou art; Re - ceive my re - ev - er I reach out for thee! Oh, how canst thou weep? I am cei - ver, who dis - heart - ens thee. Oh, lift up thine eyes and re - lief, oh be - lov'd of my heart! Child, lean thou on me. Mur - mur here by thy side! Dear chi - ld, let not thy wear - y face from me lease thy la - ment; Child, pa - tience! For soon shall veils of dark - ness be not, nor re - bel; My wis - dom, stretched forth, mak - eth all to be hide. Though storms rage a - round thee, and winds beat thee down, Oh o - pen thy rent. Yet now, in thy tri - als, trust thou and fear not; With fer - vence thy well. My peace shall at - tend thee. I'll car - ry thee nigh Up - on wings of heart that my love may a - bound. wel - fare I ev - er have sought. Oh, child, pre - cious child, with thee ev - er I mer - cy toward re - fuge on High.

6

11

plead!— Reach thou to thy God in the hour of thy need.

Text and Music: Rebecca Newson

Jacob 6:5
D&C 136:29