

Circles

Copyright 1999 Dave Conway
All rights reserved.

Baptism Song

As

best friends gath - er 'round you, you gaze an - xious - ly at earth. Heaven - ly best friends gath - er 'round you as they wit - ness your new birth. How se - day friends will sur - round you in the tem - ple of the Lord and your Fath - er gives you one last hug then sends you to your birth. As your cure - ly Fath - er holds you as you're lov - ing - ly im - mersed. With the ring will be the sym - bol of e - ter - nal love's re - ward. Up in fam' - ly gath - ers 'round you, moth - er gaz - es at her girl. Now the priest-hood gath - ered 'round you, he con - firms his lit - tle girl. Now your heav - en joy - ful spir - its will gaze an - xious - ly at earth won - d'ring rit (3rd stanza only)

arms that gent - ly hold you form the cir - cle of your world.
 fam' - ly's grown by mil - lions in the cir - cle of your world.
 who'll be first to hug you in the cir - cle of their birth.

rit (3rd stanza only)

There are cir - cles u - pon cir - cles where the pure in heart a - bound. Each one a link with - in the chain of God's e - ter - nal round. There are cir - cles u - pon cir - cles in ce - les - tial realms a - bove: Heaven - ly Fa - ther set the pat - tern with the 1.,2.

cir - cle of His love Your Some -

3.

Love Heaven - ly Fa - ther set the pat - tern with the cir - cle of His love.