

Not an Ordinary Passenger

for Voice and Piano

Laura Harper

Life is a lot like a cruise ship Wel - come a-board. I'm Look-ing a-round I see par - ties,____ loung-ing and fun. I It's tak-en time for per-spect - ive____ to shape my view. The board-ing the boat at the shore. Though a-mong the crowd now I am not the same; va-won-der why I'm the work-ing one. Scrol - ling and veg - ging, eat-ing yum-my snacks, work that I do____ on the crew, Helps_ me be-come like my Sav-ior Je - sus Christ. It's ca - tion is not why I came!

5

9
Strikes me as bet - ter than work - ing to my max! I am not an or-din-ar - y pas-sen-ger.
what I have come here to do.

2
13

I am part of the crew. Blessed with the birth-right, born to light the way!

17

Though over-whelmed I'll choose to start to-day. Woah_____ He'll teach me how to serve His trav-el-lers. Not an or-di-nar-y pass-en-ger. pass-en-ger.

20

Inspired by Brad Wilcox's General Conference talk (The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints) entitled "O Youth of the Noble Birthright" (October 2024).

May 2025