

Father, God of All Creation

With dignity

♩ = 108

Text and Music by
Andrew Moore

Unison

1. Fa - ther, God of all cre - a - tion, Thou whose won - drous works un - fold,
2. For - est glades and fields of co - lour, Low - ly vale and moun - tain tall,
3. Ev' - ry fish that swims the o - cean, Ev' - ry bird that sky - ward flies,
4. Sun and moon and stars in heav - en, Time and space To Thee are known.

Stretch - ing forth in ra - diant splen - dour 'Cross the u - ni - verse un - told.
Morn - ing dawn and glo - rious sun - set, Sum - mer, win - ter, spring and fall,
Ev' - ry crea - ture great and hum - ble Glo - ri - fies Thy grand des - igns.
Man - sions, king - doms, spheres ex - alt - ed, End - less worlds to call Thine own.

Light where once was dark - est void, Life's a - bund - ance now en - joyed.
Deep - est o -ceans, high - est plains, Warm - ing sun and cool - ing rains,
Here on earth for us to share, Lov - ing - ly we'll tend and care.
Each with pur - pose, Thou hast planned, Nur - tured by Thy pow'r - ful hand.

Beau - ty in Thine earth - ly gar - dens, We Thy chil - dren now be - hold.
Ev' - ry tree and flow - er grow - ing; Test - i - mo - ny of Thy love.
Ev' - ry life a pre - cious won - der, Ev' - ry birth a gift from Thee.
This, Thy work and glo - ry be; Our path to im - mor - ta - li - ty.

Father, God of All Creation - 2

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in common time. The key signature changes from A minor (no sharps or flats) to D major (one sharp). The lyrics are as follows:

Heav'n and earth Thy hands have made,
All cre - a - tion's work dis - played.

Ev' - ry soul is loved and cher - ished,
Ev' - ry life is known to Thee.