The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in treble clef with a common time signature (C). It begins with a whole rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staff. The middle staff is a vocal line in treble clef, also in common time, which contains only whole rests. The bottom staff is a piano accompaniment in bass clef, in common time, featuring a steady pattern of chords and single notes.
