

Count Your Blessings

Words: Edith Temple (Joseph Murrells, 1904-1985), 1946

Music: Reginald Dudley Morgan (1900-1981), 1946

Arrangement: Elnora Noble Moody (1923-1983)

♩ = 60

1. Count your bless-ings one by one, When dawn ap-pears and day has just be-gun.
2. Count your bless-ings while you may, For we are here but lit-tle time to stay.

They will light your heart with hap-pi-ness, Make each hour bright and bring you glad-ness.
All a-round are hearts sin-cere and true. Love-ly things a-bound just wait-ing for you.

Count your bless-ings one by one, When twi-light falls and toil of day is done.
Count your bless-ings while you may, The big or small, which-ev-er come your way,

And in sweet dreams they'll come a-gain to you, If you will
For then you'll find this world a place of love, If you will

1. count your bless-ings each day through. 2. count your bless-ings from a-bove.
