Ernestly ♩ = 76

I'm go - ing forth, dear Lord this ar - mor in thy day, my love and hope are bright. Please go be - fore, I hum - bly pray, that word and streng - then ev - 'ry hour. With ho - ly fire tem - per my sword, of

I may not lose sight. I've tra - veled far, a work to do, a work none o - ther light build me a tower. Make might - y where I once was weak 'til un - a - fraid to can. From thy side where I learned and grew, to an un - fa - mi - liar land. And stand I test - i - fy and bold - ly speak as light - ning in thy hand.

when the bat-tles o-ver Lord, with thy help I will be found not felled by some un-hal-lowed sword but march-ing home-ward bound. to next movement march - ing, march - ing, march - ing home-ward bound. Fine

When a storm beats at the win - dow and a chill is in the air, tho' I can't see hea-ven's rain - bow, I still know you are there. Read deep my soul and know my heart, my Lord, I'm com-ing home; when vic-tor-ious o're the fie-ry darts to thy arms I'll glad-ly come. And

felled by some un-hal-owed sword but march-ing home-ward bound.
