

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

Joanne Wiltsie Nightengale

Rosalind M. Luke Crosby

Women's Trio

Soloist 1:

The mo - ther of

Soloist 2:

li - ber - ty beck - ons to thee. The wear - y, the care - worn, the

Soloist 3:

hope - ful free, the tra - vel - er and pa - tri - ot like you and

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

2

16 All:

me, the sol-dier de - fen - ding our right to be free. Ah_____

Pno.

22

Soloist 1:

With a

Pno.

28

Soloist 2:

lamp in her hand — she ga - thers her fold. The chil - dren of

Pno.

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

33

All:

free - dom with stor - ies un - told. She lights the way for li - ber - ty, for Pno.

38

hope and op - por - tun - i - ty, Ah _____

Pno.

44

E - mi - grants from man - y lands view her

Pno.

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

4

48

ta - blet and un - der - stand. It's a do - cu - ment of li - ber - ty and of Pno.

52

free - dom for pos - ter - i - ty. Her wise and car - ing eyes can see each

Pno.

56

sa - cri - fice for li - ber - ty. Her char - ac - ter speaks in a mag - ni - fi - cent way to the Pno.

60

chil - dren of free-dom e-very day.

Pno.

65

Soloist 1:

Soloist 2:

She seems to know each per - son's worth, the Pno.

70

strug - gles and fears for free - dom on earth. Un - daun - ted she so

Pno.

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

6

75

firm-ly stands for li - ber-ty, choice li - ber-ty in this, this pro - mised

Pno.

80

land! Ah

Pno.