

The Sun in Glory Rose That Day

An Easter Hymn

Lyrics by W. Gerrit van Dyk

Music by Amy J. van Dyk

Joyfully ♩ = 95

The Sun, in glo-ry — rose that day When wo - men heard the an - gels say: "The
"Why seek the liv - ing a - mong the dead? Re - mem - ber what the Lord hath said: "Once "Ye men of Gal - li - le - ah birth, Why gaze ye heav - en ward from earth? This Lord is ris - en from the tomb!" And thus dis - pelled death's aw - ful gloom. He lives! He lives! O cru - ci - fied by sin - ful men, When three days pass, I'll rise a - gain." He lives! He lives! O Je - sus ta - ken up from thee, Shall come a - gain just as ye see." He lives! He lives! O won - drous sound! The Son of God could not be bound! He lives! He lives! Let won - drous sound! The Son of God could not be bound! He lives! He lives! Let won - drous sound! The Son of God could not be bound! He lives a - gain! And all re - joice! And sing a - loud with heart and voice!

5

10

14

all re - joice! And sing a - loud with heart and voice!
so will we! When He re - turns for all to see!