

Christy, the Frosty Snowflake words and music by Peggy Lee Melville Thornton

Joyfully

Ref: Chris - ty, the Frost - y Snow - flake, 1. Her - man, an i - ci - cle, a -
2. Geor - gy, the cold North wind, a - 3. Waxin - a, the Christ - mas can - dle, 4. Char - lie, is San - ta's sled, a - 5. Ran - dy, is Ru - dolph's son, a - 6. Jer - ry, the ev - er - green, so danc - ing in the air, hang - ing long and slim, blow - ing through the trees, burn - ing bright and free, is glid - ing slick with glee, pranc - ing in the snow, his fir - ry and tall,

swirl - ing, twirl - ing, glis' - ning, spark - ling, droop - ing, drip - ping, slip - ping, splash - ing, huff - ing, puff - ing, roar - ing, laugh - ing, glow - ing, warm for light, but slid - ing fast as he can go, as nose is red as Ru - dolph's was, so cov - er'd with - Chris - ty's white, till giv - ing Christ - mas time some flair. poin - ting to some of Chris - ty's friends.

who makes Chris - ty's wa - ter freeze. makes lit - tle Chris - ty sneeze.
Chris - ty's cold would please.
San - ta could watch Christy's snow glow.
Christ - mas leaves for spring.