Cheerfully

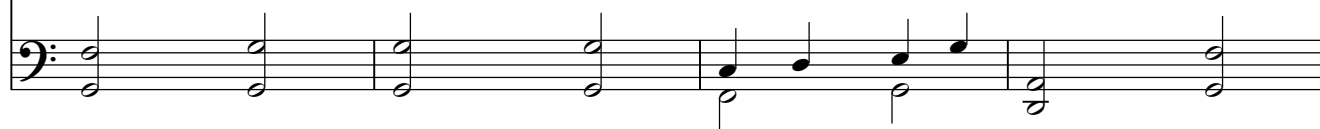

1. Sing, lit-tle an - gels, sing of the night Stars filled the heav - ens one shin-ing bright.
2. Sing of dear Ma - ry, wear-ied and worn, Grate - ful her ba - by's fin'- lly been born,
3. Sing of the Wise Men, who trav-eled far, Find - ing the child while led by the star.

Choirs of___ an - gels pro-claimed the word, Tid - ings of great joy to all who heard.
Rest - ing and still, she knew in her heart Her ba-by's birth was on - ly the start.
Gifts for a King they laid at His feet, Thank-ing the Fa - ther that they could meet.

Sing of the shep-herds who humb - ly knelt. Touched by the Spir - it, God's love they felt.
Sing of___ Jo - seph, si - lent and strong, Rock - ing the babe with lul - la - by's song,
Prayers can be sung, so sing from your heart That He will hold us, nev - er to part.

Ris - ing, they went out, spread - ing the news: Born that dark night, the King of the Jews.
Stand-ing with Ma - ry through thick and thin, Knew a new life's a - bout to be - gin!
Sing out for Je - sus, ev - er - y day To teach us, guide us, show us the way.
