Sing lit - tle an - gels, sing of the night Stars filled the heav - ens one shin - ing bright
 Sing of the shep - herds who hum - bly knelt, Touched by the Spi - rit, God's love they felt.
 Sing of dear Ma - ry, wear - ied and worn Grate - ful her ba - by's fin - 'ly been born,
 Sing of — Jo - seph sil - ent and strong, Rock - ing the babe with lul - la - by's song
 Sing of the Wise Men, who trav - eled far, Find - ing the child while led by the star.
 Prayers can be sung so, sing from the heart That He will hold us, nev - er to part.

Choi - rs of an - gels pro - claimed the word Tid - ings of great joy to all who heard.
 Ris - ing, they went out, spread - ing the news: Born that dark night the king of the Jews.
 Rest - ting and quiet, she knew in her heart Her ba - by's birth was on - ly the start.
 Stand - ing with Ma - ry through thick and thin, Knew a new life's a bout to be - gin.
 Gifts for a King they laid at his feet; Thank - ing the Fa - ther that they could meet.
 Sing out for Je - sus, ev - er - y day To teach us guide us show us the way.
