

The New Year Dawns II

Words and music:
Diane Ferguson-Watts

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. The new year dawns ma - jes - ti - cally, With prom - ise in the air. Once
2. Our man - y sins and weak - ness - es Can bring no last - ing grief: The
3. The Lord can work a might - y change And pu - ri - fy our hearts. Di -
4. With con - fi - dence we re - com - mit To live the Sav - ior's way. We'll more the pos - si - bil - i - ties Ex - tin - guish all de - spair. We know our hope is Sav - ior suf - fered all our pain And of - fers true re - lief. When we re - pent, He min - ish our de - sire to sin, And great - er strength im - part. If we will yield our - fol - low in His foot - steps and Grow more like Him each day. For old things now are not in vain, For if we seek the Lord, Our Fa - ther's great, e - ter - nal gifts Will cleans - es us Of all our guilt and stain. We feel His sanc - ti - fy - ing pow'r; His selves to God, New crea - tures we'll be - come. He'll help us live more faith - ful - ly And done a - way And ev - ry - thing is new. We'll leave our sin - ful ways be - hind And be our just re - ward.

5

10

15

mer - cy we ob - tain.
all things o - ver - come.
to our God be true.