

The New Year Dawns II

Words and music:
Diane Ferguson-Watts

♩ = 96

1. The new year dawns ma - jes - ti - cally, With prom - ise in the air. Once
2. Our man - y sins and weak - ness - es Can bring no last - ing grief: The
3. The Lord can work a might - y change And pu - ri - fy our hearts. Di -
4. With con - fi - dence we re - com - mit To live the Sav - ior's way. We'll more the pos - si - bil - i - ties Ex - tin - guish all de - spair. We Sav - ior suf - fered all our pain And of - fers true re - lief. When min - ish our de - sire to sin, And great - er strength im - part. If fol - low in His foot - steps and Grow more like Him each day. For 9

5

know our hope is not in vain, For if we seek the Lord, Our we re - pent, He cleans - es us Of all our guilt and stain. We we will yield our - selves to God, New crea - tures we'll be - come. He'll old things now are done a - way And ev' - ry - thing is new. We'll

13

Fa - ther's great, e - ter - nal gifts Will be our just re - ward.
feel His sanc - ti - fy - ing pow'r; His mer - cy we ob - tain.
help us live more faith - ful - ly And all things o - ver - come.
leave our sin - ful ways be - hind And to our God be true.

© 2022 Diane Ferguson-Watts

This work may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.