

Fallen From My Holy Home

Alma 42

Holly Boyd

Wendy Jensen

♩ = 105

Fall - en from my ho - ly home, I learn the wrong from right. _____
Trou - bled by the wrong - ful choice, Re gret a - lerts my mind. _____
Lad - en by the sin's re - straint, I sense my pro - gress slow. _____
Cleared from wrong, I aim to fill My breath with pu - ri - ty. _____

5

Wounds and weight de - plete my might. Je - sus heals and for - ti - fies.
Er - ror pulls me in de - cline. Je - sus pros - pers and re - fines.
Sin im - pedes my god - ly growth. Je - sus yokes and drives the load.
As I learn how He re - deems, Je - sus' joy may grow in me.

9

As I rec - og - nize my choice, I can turn to Christ for joy.
God - ly sor - row breaks my will, Giv - ing Christ a place to fill.
By con - fess - ing, I be - gin Let - ting Je - sus bear the sin.
Res - ti - tu - tion makes one whole With Christ's sac - ri - fice un - told.

13

Jus - tice has me know de - feat. Mer - cy con - quers for the meek.
Jus - tice reaps the seed that's sown. Mer - cy chan - ges what is grown.
Jus - tice weighs a pen - al - ty. Mer - cy light - ens e - qual - ly.
Jus - tice calls for debts dis - bursed. Mer - cy from the Lord se - cures.