

Manger, Garden, Cross & Tomb

Mary's Song

Claire Chell

$\text{♩} = 70$

Voice

Rubato and expressive

Piano

6

V

The star has fa - ded in the sky, the kings and shepherds are gone. The Pno.

11

V

an - gels ceased their lul - la - by, the night is silent once more. — Now I think of what the prophet said, of all the sorrow which lies ahead. From the rall. $\text{♩} = 70$

Pno.

15

V

Pno.

19

V

man-ger, through the gar-den, cross and tomb, — please God, not for You, please tell me it's not true for my child? But if God wills this pain-ful road for You, — He will ca-rry

Pno.

22

V

Pno.

25

V

You. Please God ca-rry me too. From the man-ger, through the gar-den, cross, and Pno.

28

V

tomb. Hush my ba-by don't you cry, rest sa-fely next to Pno.

33

V

me. Hear your mo-ther's lul-la-by find peace here now with

Pno.

37

V
me. I'll rest my cares at the Fa-ther's feet, and trust that His pro-mis-es

Pno.

41

V
He will keep. From the man-ger, through the gar-den, cross and tomb, please God, not for Pno.

44

V
You, please tell me it's not true for my child? But if God wills this pain-ful road for Pno.

47

V
You, He will ca-rry You. Please God ca-rry me too. From the Pno.

50

V
man-ger, through the gar-den, cross, then You will rise and wipe the tears from our eyes and You will Pno.

53

V
ca - rry us to the Fa-ther's arms. You came to save so I will be brave but for to-

Pno.

57

V
-night rest safe - ly in my arms. From the man-ger, through the gar-den, cross and

Pno.

60

V tomb, I'll be there for you, and God will be there too my child. For Pno.

63

V
God wills this pain-ful road for You, so He will help You through, and He will help me

Pno.

66

V
too. From the man-ger, through the gar-den, cross, and tomb.

Pno.

rall.