

Count Your Blessings

Words: Edith Temple, 1946

Music: Reginald Dudley Morgan (1900-1981), 1946

Arrangement: Elnora Noble Moody (1923-1983)

♩ = 60

1. Count your bless-ings one by one,                      When dawn ap-pears and day has just be-gun.
2. Count yout bless-ings while you may,                      For we are here but lit-tle time to stay.

5

They will light your heart with hap-pi-ness,                      Make each hour bright and bring you glad-ness.
All a-round are hearts sin-cere and true.                      Love-ly things a-bound just wait-ing for you.

9

Count your bless-ings one by one,                      When twi-light falls and toil of day is done.
Count your bless-ings while you may,                      The big or small, which-ev-er come your way,

13

And in sweet dreams they'll come a-gain to you,                      If you will
For then you'll find this world a place of love,                      If you will

15

1. count your bless-ings each day through.                      2. count your bless-ings from a-bove.
