

Our Hearts Are Turned

Malachi 4:5-6

Words and Music by Melinda Talley

Gently ♩ = 100

Be - yond a veil we can - not see Lies the home we left be - Here we strive to help each o - ther through the pat - tern set a - Here we drink from wells we did not dig, dug by those who came be - As our hearts are turned to fa - mi - ly, our hearts are turned to hind, Where we lived as cher - ished chil - dren in a fa - mi - ly di - bove as fam' - lies sealed to - ge - ther in e - ter - nal bonds of fore. Grate - ful hearts are turned to theirs that we may be for - e - ver Christ, That each may be made whole through His e - ter - nal sa - cri -

4

8

vine. We were taught by heav'n - ly par - ents where the path to joy would love. Here we strug - gle to en - dea - vor all out trials to o - ver more Bound by cov' - nant and by or' - nance through sa - cred priest - hood fice. Then at last all sealed to - ge - ther, with - in His lo - ving

Our Hearts Are Turned

12

lie, And are here to prove our faith - ful - ness, our own will to here ap - come, And to - ge - ther walk the cov' - nant path that leads us back to pow'r. Thus our lives may here bless theirs and their faith a - bove may streng - then sight, We shall dwell in bliss and glo - ry in realms of truth and ply. For we star - ted in a fam' - ly, and as fam' - ly we'll en - dure. We de - home. For we star - ted in a fam' - ly, and as fam' - ly we'll en - dure. We de - ours. For we star - ted in a fam' - ly, and as fam' - ly we'll en - dure. We de - light. For we star - ted in a fam' - ly, and as fam' - ly we'll en - dure. We de - sire to taste the sweet - ness of God's pro - mi - ses made sure.

16

21

 sire to feel the sweet - ness of God's pro - mi - ses made sure.
 sire to know the sweet - ness of God's pro - mi - ses made sure.
 sire to live the sweet - ness of God's pro - mi - ses made sure.