Cheerfully

1. May I be the tree in win-ter de - signed To test, not to pun - ish, but teach and re - fine.
2. Though cold aches my soul, I grate-ful - ly see The Plan in its gran-deur, deep roots hold-ing me.
3. The storm may sug-gest re - treat, but growth comes Not fear-ing, a - void - ing, but reach-ing the Son.

En - dur-ing with pa-tience, I hope for re - lief, As - sured in the sea - son that fol-lows be - lief.
My plot and my plight are the me - di-ums deemed For learn-ing to love, to o - bey and es - teem
With roots in Christ's king-dom I nour-ish my faith, Sus - tained by His word and His glo - ri - ous grace.

And beau-ty, once hid, so long pu - ri - fied, Will blos-som, sweet sea - son, when faith has been tried.
The Christ as my Lord. My life He se-cured, Sub - du - ing death's gate and the fall of this world.
Through dai - ly pur-suit of fill-ing with sun, God's work may be mine and our vi-sions as one.

I trust Him. I trust and sub - mit to His will. Om - nip - o - tent God tells my soul, "Be still."
With grat - i - tude, grat - i - tude, my heart will warm, And glo - ry from God will have place to form.
En - dur-ance, en - dur-ance, to cov-enants I cleave, Then life ev - er - more is mine to re-ceive.

4. Then why think re-gret when with great-est care I meek-ly o-bey, seek God's will and pre-pare?
 5. I have all I need, God's im-age is mine, To grow more di-vine-ly. I shed sin to find

Suc-cess in God's eye is o-be-di-ence, faith, For giv-ing, re-pent-ing, and trust-ing His grace.
 My role and di-vin-i-ty born from a-bove. With Christ as my sun I grow warmed in His love.

God's bless-ings are sure, His glo-ry is crowned On souls who o-bey, for by cov-enant He's bound.
 I strive through the sea-son, that's how I show My Heav-en-ly Par-ents I seek for their home.

O-bey, I o-bey for fresh free-dom it brings The Spir-it to teach and rest in my leaves.
 So trust, thanks, en-dur-ance, o-be-di-ence thrive, For win-ter won't last, in Christ I'm a-live.
