

Holy Week

K. Haderlie

$\text{♩} = 80$ Expressively, like a storyteller

Chords: C F C G C

6 (FM⁷) G C F C F

1. On Sun - day Je - sus ent - ered Je - ru - sa - lem with ho - sa - nnas and palms laid at his feet.
3. His bo - dy was placed in a sep - ul - chre wrapped in lin - ens and left there - a - lone.

14 C F C

On Mon - day he cleansed his Fath - er's tem - ple and then healed those who tru - ly be -
On Sat - ur - day all his friends wept for him not be - liev - ing the truth they'd been

21 G G⁷ C F Em G

lieved. told, On that on Tues - day he taught ma - ny par - a - bles and he begged for the peo - ple to
On Sat - ur - day, the Sun - day, the third day, he'd live a - gain break - ing death - and bring - ing new

29 Am F G

hear. life. Then on that Wednes - day he fore - told came, his mill -
And that day Ma - ry ry he

33 E Am F Dm G

e - nni - al reign, he could feel his time draw - ing near.
called her by name, and she wor - shipped the liv - ing Christ!

38 Chorus C F G C Am

Ho - ly week of my Sav - ior, Lamb of God who was slain Res - cue me dear Re -

44 F C G F G⁷ C

dee - mer, death and sin take a - way Then rise a - gain the third day!

50 Somberly G C F Dm F G G⁷

2.The pass - o - ver feast was on Thurs-day, the last night he'd spend with his friends Then

59 C F Dm F G G⁷ Expressive CM⁷

out in Geth - se - ma - ne's gar - den he bore all their sins while they slept. He was tak - en and

68 Em F Ddim E Am

tried with - out mer - cy then on Fri - day he foll - owed his cross to the place where he'd die for all of man - kind The earth quaked and mourned its great loss!

75 F G E Am F Dm G

82 Chorus C F G C Am

Ho - ly week of my Sav - ior, Lamb of God who was slain Res - cue me dear Re -

88 F C G F G⁷ C D.S. al coda

dee - mer, death and sin take a - way Then rise a - gain the third day!

90 Coda C F G C

day!

On Sunday, Jesus entered Jerusalem with hosannas and palms laid at his feet. (Matthew 21:6-11)
 On Monday, he cleansed his Father's temple and then healed those who truly believed. (Matthew 21:12-16)
 On Tuesday, he taught many parables, and he pled for the people to hear. (Matthew 21-23)
 Then on Wednesday, he foretold his millennial reign; he could feel his time drawing near. (Matthew 24-25)

The Passover feast was on Thursday, the last night he'd spend with his friends. (Matthew 26:1-35)
 Then out in Gethsemane's garden, he bore all their sins while they slept. (Matthew 26:36-46)
 Friday: He was taken and tried without mercy, then on Friday he followed his cross
 To the place where he'd die for all of mankind. The earth quaked and mourned its great loss! (Matthew 27: 1-54)

His body was placed in a sepulchre, wrapped in linens and left there alone. (Matthew 27:57-66)
 On Saturday all his friends wept for him, not believing the truth they'd been told: (Mark 16:10-11)
 That on Sunday, the third day, he'd live again, breaking death and bringing new life.
 And that day Mary came, he called her by name, and she worshipped the Living Christ! (John 20:1-18)