Narrator:

Yes, Jesus, our eldest brother, came into this world in much the same way all of us did. He came to this earth to teach, heal, love, and show us the way by which we can all return to our Father's presence. He didn't come to force us into submission, only to offer His hand to help us over the rocky and sometimes treacherous path through this life. He gave us His example and said, "Come follow me." And now it is up to us to follow Him, to do our best to pattern our lives after His.
