

Morning of Eternity

To Lawrence Henry Kleinman 1896-1984

Lyrics and Music by Joan Lisonbee Sowards

Peacefully

mf

ten.

1. He was a man _____ who lived a hum - ble right - eous life, Hard work - ing (2. He was a) man _____ whom we feel proud _____ to have known. And now we man _____ who had his share of joy and strife. A man who loved _____ his reap _____ all the good that he has sown. He lived his life _____ in fam - i - ly, his God, with whom he felt a kind - ship when he worked the earth - ly sod. He was a hum - ble dig - ni - ty. We're proud to pass this her - i - tage to our pos - ter - i - ty. Man - y knew and loved him as a friend. Sure - ly it is known that he en - dured well to the end. And now he's gone to re - ceive e - ter - nal glo - ry. And our hearts will re - view his earth - ly sto - ry here be - gan But now con - tin - ues on where the morn - ing of e - ter - ni - ty has dawned. Where the morn - ing of e - ter - ni - ty has dawned.